AUTHOR'S ADVERTISEMENT

The Author of this collection of Sacred Music begs leave respectfully to present "The New Village Harmony" to the public, and to recommend it as well adapted to the wants and capacities of Sabbath School Pupils;—as well as for the use of choirs, which, from a deficiency in numbers, find it inconvenient to perform pieces so harmonized as to require a greater number of parts to be sustained;—and on the same account, for use in the conference room and family circle.

The greater number of the tunes are original; the remainder consists of tunes selected from his other publications, viz. the American Harp, an original work, and the Ancient Lyre, a compilation and new arrangement of old and new tunes;—the whole are harmonized either for two Trebles, for two Trebles and Base, or for three Trebles.

The book, besides being entirely free of selections from Operas, Songs, Glees, &c., is in the true style of Church Music, either as regards the expression of the melodies, the variety of metres, or sentiments of the hymns; and will, he hopes, prove very useful.

An Introduction to the Art of Singing is introduced into the work in a plain and simple style, by question, answer and illustration; and, with a proper degree of explanation on the part of the teacher, and attention on the part of the pupil, will be found sufficient to give a good knowledge of the rudiments of the science.

PUBLISHERS' PREFACE.

Among the means now used in this age of benevolent effort to cultivate the mind and improve the heart, teaching children the science of Music holds a primary rank. Every facility, therefore, which is given to this branch of study is welcome to the community; hence the publication of this Musical Manual. In presenting this work to the patronage of those who are interested in the intellectual advance of the youth of our country in the important service of Sacred Song, the Publishers feel confident that in its preparation the acknowledged talents of the Author will be found to have been successfully employed.

The establishment of Sabbath Schools has had a direct tendency to engage the young in the delightful service of Sacred Music, the influence of which on the mind, in every situation of life, is universally acknowledged. The young convert expresses his glow of gratitude to his Redeemer in songs of praise; and, with the sweet singer of Israel, the mature Christian swells the anthem of his thanksgiving for preserving grace. Indeed the improving taste of the age in this science, seems to be establishing the truth of the sentiment of an ancient philosopher, that "music contains the seed of moral life."

It may indeed be said that music enhances, almost to perfection, the pleasures of social intercourse. Its exercise not only invigorates health, but brings into action one of the most cheerful faculties of the mind. It has power to dispel despondency, and to brighten hope.

The cultivation of the voice in the strains of melody, and of the ear in the varied notes of harmony, tends to quicken our sensibilities, and to open the heart to the moral of the verse; hence the importance of connecting correct and salutary hymns with the tunes to be learned by juvenile performers. First impressions are always deep; and, as the words which accompany pieces of music are so thoroughly committed to memory as never to be forgotten, their wholesome tone is of the first importance to the young. In selecting the hymns, therefore, for this work, great care has been taken in reference to the sentiments which they inculcate.

Situation of the letters in the Treble Clef.

LESSON IV.

on the marks of transposition, or the sharp,(#) flat,(b) and natural.(1)

- 1 What do you call the FLATS or SHARPS, placed at the beginning of a piece of music? Essential, or Signatures.
- 2 What are they called when placed before single notes?

Accidental.

3 What is the use of a Sharp?

A Sharp directs that the note is to be sung half a note higher than its natural tone.

4 What is the use of a Flat?

The same notes are to be sung half a note lower than the natural tone.

5 What is the use of a Natural?

It restores a note made flat or sharp, to its natural tone.

- 6 What is the effect of Flats and Sharps, when placed at the beginning of a tune?

 They last throughout the piece.
- 7 But how long do accidental Flats and Sharps last? Through one bar only.

LESSON V.

OF MUSICAL CHARACTERS.

a 12

- 1 What is the use of a Bar line?
- To show the end of a measure.
- 2 What is the use of a Double bar?

 To show the end of a strain in music, or a line of
- poetry.
 3 What is the meaning of a Tie?

That the notes are to be sung in a smooth and connected manner, and to one syllable.

- 4 Do you know the meaning of a Slur?
- The Slur requires that the sound should be sustained.

 5 Can you tell the meaning of a Repeat?
- It shows that a strain or whole piece should be sung twice.
- 6 What is the use of Pauses?

Pauses over notes or rests show a point of repose to the performer.

- 1 What is the use of a Dot?
 A Dot lengthens the value of a note.
- 2 What is the general rule for the Dots?

 A Dot, placed after a note or rest, adds one half to its original value.
- 3 How much is a dotted Minim? Three Crotchets.
- 4 How much a dotted Crotchet? Three Quavers.

LESSON VII.

OF TIME.

1 Do you know the different kinds of Time in Music?

Yes. Two kinds.

2 What do you call them? Common and Triple Time.

3 What is the difference between them?

Common Time contains an even number of equal parts, two or four equal notes; but in Triple Time we count three or six equal notes to each measure.

4 What kinds of time belong to Common Time? Four Crotchets, two Minins, four Quavers.

5 Can you tell some kinds of Triple Time?
Three Minims, three Crotchets, three Quavers, six Quavers, &c.

6 How can you know in what kind of Time a piece is to be played?

From the figures placed at the beginning.

7 What does the top figure signify?

The number of parts of the note, contained within the measure.

8 What does the bottom figure signify?
The value of the notes.

9 Which parts of the bars in general are the accented parts?

The first parts, or first beats.

10 How are the beats marked or distinguished?

By the falling and rising of the hand.

11 How do you beat the accented parts of the bars?

By the falling of the hand.

12 And the unaccented?
By the rising of the hand.

13 What is the sign in general of Common Time?

A C, or four beats in each bar.

14 What means a with a bar drawn across it?

It means two beats in each measure.

15 What is Compound Time?

Compound Time is either a multiplied Common or Triple Time, in regard to the top figure.

- 12 On what letter is the syllable Mi to be found if the Signature be one Sharp? (F#)

On the letter F#.

13 Two Sharps? (F & C#)

On C#. 14 Three Sharps? (F, C & G#) On GF.

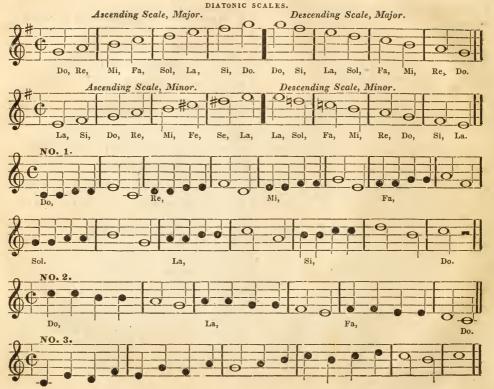

15 Four Sharps? (F, C, G & D#)

On D=.

See N. B. at the end of the ninth lesson, regarding the accidentals in Solmization.—Such changes are made sometimes by a different termination of the syllables; as, Fe, for Fa-Se, for Sol, &c.-An easier method, however, may be adopted (for all Farela, Larefa and Doremi), by singing always the sound of a broad, for all the intervals, scales and lessons, taking care to be familiar with the names of the notes, C, D, E, F, &c.

The words may be used in singing, only when the learner shall have attained a certain degree of facility in reading music. It is necessary to explain the situations of the whole and half tones in the scales, and their places in the major and minor scales. By this method the learner will have infinitely less trouble than by the old Do, Re, Mi, Fa. His voice will sooner shew the effect of cultivation.

NEW VILLAGE HARMONY.

Charleston. L. M.

- 2 Less fragrant was the ointment pour'd On Aaron's consecrated head, When balmy odors richly show'rd All o'er his sacred vesture spread.
- 3 Not flow'ry Hermon e'er display'd, Impeal'd with dew, a fairer sight; Nor Sion's beauteous hills array'd In golden beams of morning light.

Morning Mercies. L. M.

- 3 Behold! the sun in splendor bright, Dispels the darkness of the night; So let the light of truth divine, Upon our souls with power shine.
- 3 The glorious sun that makes the day, And heav'n and earth shall pass away; But every word of God is sure, And shall forever firm endure.

- 2 Thou spread'st the curtains of the night, Great Guardian of my sleeping hours; Thy sovereign word restores the light, And quickens all my drowsy powers.
- 3 My heart should yield to thy command; To thee would I devote my days; Perpetual blessings from thy hand, Demand perpetual songs of praise.

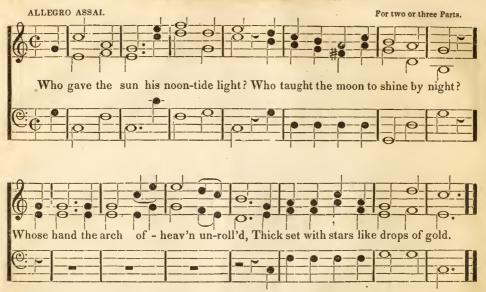

- 2 We thank thee, Father, that to thee
 Again we bend the lowly knee:
 That here in peace and prayer we stand,
 Upheld by an Almighty hand.
- 3 Whate'er we do, where'er we be, Keep us from sin and error free; Thy sabbaths may we so improve At last to win our Father's love
- 4 So shall we then, when life shall end,
 A nobler, holier sabbath spend;
 When thy good children all shall be,
 Join'd in one family with thee.

- 2 For him shall endless praise be made, And angels throng to crown his head: His name like sweet perfume shall rise, With every morning sacrifice.
- 3 People and realms of every tongue Dwell on his love with sweetest song; And infant voices shall proclaim Their early blessings on his name.

- 2 Who gave the winds their course to know? The ocean's tides to ebb and flow? And day and night to keep their bounds And changing seasons know their rounds?
- 3 'Twas God who gave creation birth,
 Who formed this wond'rous globe of earth,
 And breathed throughout this mighty whole
 The likeness of a living soul.
- 4 Bow then to God—O all that live!
 To God eternal praises give!
 Who fashioned by his mighty hand,
 Sun, moon, and stars; the sea and land.

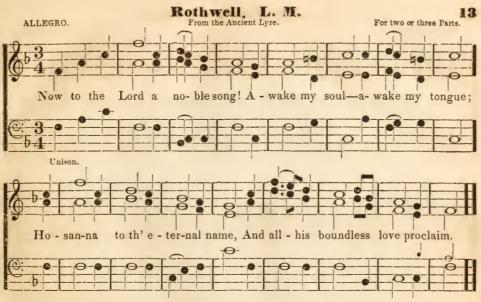

- 2 How do I pity those that dwell Where ignorance and darkness reign; Who know no heaven, who fear no hell, Of endless joy, or endless pain.
- 3 Thy praise shall still employ my breath, Since thou hast marked my way to heaven; Nor will I run the road to death And waste the blessing thou hast given.

When I begin my morning song Let thankfulness inspire my tongue : The kindness of my God proclaim, And tell the wonders of his name.

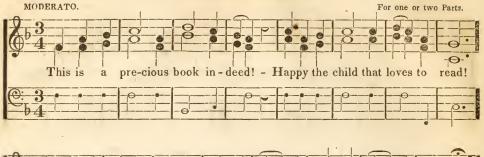

3 Yes, O my God! thy glorious name, My soul shall through the day proclaim; I'll bear thy kindness on my heart, While every power performs its part.

- 2 See where it shines in Jesus' face, The brightest image of his grace, God, in the person of his Son, Has all his mightiest works outdone.
- 3 Grace!—'tis a sweet and charming theme,
 My thoughts rejoice at Jesus' name!
 Ye angels, dwell upon the sound;
 Ye heavens, reflect it to the ground!
- 4 Oh! may I reach that happy place
 Where he unveils his lovely face!
 Where all his beauties you behold,
 And sing his name to harps of gold!

D

The Bible. L. M.

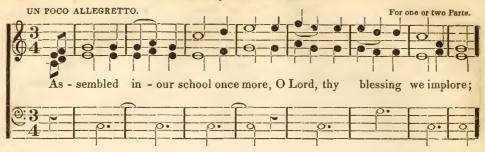

- 2 It tells us how the world was made;
 And how good men the Lord obey'd:
 Here his commands are written too,
 To teach us what we ought to do.
- 3 But, what is more than all beside,
 The 'Bible tells us, Jesus died!'
 This is its best, its chief intent,
 To lead poor sinners to repent.
- 4 Be thankful, children, that you may Read this good Bible every day; 'Tis God's own word, which he has giv'n To shew your souls 'the way to heav'n.'

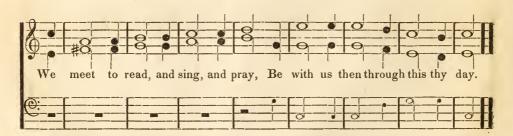

- 2 He makes the grass the hills adorn, And clothes the smiling fields with corn; The beasts with food his hands supply, He feeds the ravens when they cry.
- 3 His saints are lovely in his sight, He views his children with delight; He sees their hope, he knows their fear, And finds and loves his image there.

Prayer. L. M.

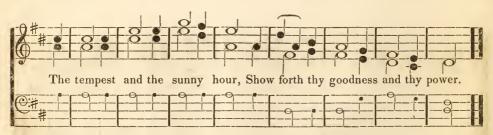

- 2 Our fervent prayer to thee ascends For parents, teachers, foes, and friends; And when we in thy house appear Help us to worship in thy fear.
- 3 When we on earth shall meet no more, May we above to glory soar; And praise thee in more lofty strains, Where one eternal Sabbath reigns.

2 From every field beneath the sun, May thus thy glorious name be spread; As long as months and days shall run, Or living men thy earth shall tread.

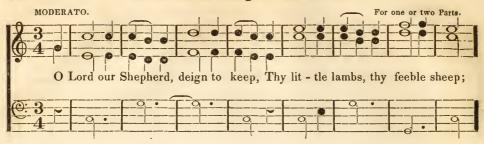

- 2 And when the setting sun declines, I view Thee in its brilliant lines; Those tints so beautiful and bright, Teach me the author of all light.
- 3 Great God! how should our anthems rise To thee, who form'd the earth and skies; The things that creep, and things that fly, Are viewed by thine omniscient eye.
- 4 Then I will still adore thy name, Thou, who for ever art the same; Thy goodness, and thy mercy, Lord, Shine brightest in thy holy word.

- 2 The light of truth to us display,
 And make us know and choose thy way;
 Plant holy fear in every heart,
 That we from God may ne'er depart.
- 3 Lead us to God, our final rest, In his enjoyment to be blessed; Lead us to heaven, the seat of bliss, Where pleasure in perfection is.

The Good Shepherd. L. M.

When faint and trembling with alarms, O gather us within thine arms; Kind shepherd, on thy gracious breast, The weakest lamb may safely rest.

- 2 Thy Holy Spirit's aid impart, That he may teach us how to pray; Make us sincere, and let each heart Delight to tread in wisdom's way.
- 3 O let thy grace our souls renew,
 And seal a sense of pardon there;
 Teach us thy will to know and do,
 And let us all thy image bear.

- 2 Bright angels bow before his face, And saints stand waiting round his throne; And in that holy, happy place, No sinful thoughts or words are known.
- 3 We ought to speak with humble fear, Whenever we kneel down to pray; His holy word with reverence hear, And never break the Sabbath day.
- 4 But as there will be much amiss,
 Whatever care and pains we take,
 We'll beg the Lord to pardon this,
 And hear our prayers, for Zion's sake.

- 2 To Thee the voices of the young A monument of honor raise;
 And babes with uninstructed tongue,
 Declare the wonders of thy praise.
- 3 Children amid thy temple throng
 To see their great Redeemer's face;
 The Son of David is their song,
 And young hosannas fill the place.

The New Year. L. M.

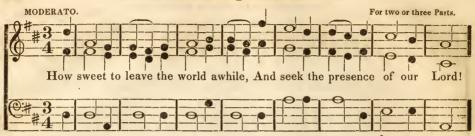

- 2 By day, by night, at home, abroad, Still we are guarded by our God; By his incessant bounty fed, By his unerring counsel led.
- 3 In scenes exalted or depress'd,
 Be thou our joy, and thou our rest;
 Thy goodness all our hopes shall raise,
 Ador'd through all our changing days.

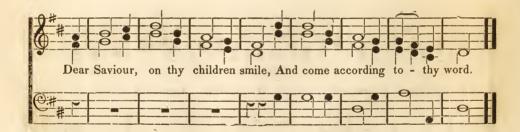

- 2 No more fatigue, no more distress, Nor sin, nor death, shall reach the place; No groans shall mingle with the songs, That warble on immortal tongues.
- 3 No rude alarm of angry foes, No cares to break the long repose; No midnight shade, no clouded sun, But sacred, high, eternal noon.

Worship. L. M.

- 2 From busy scenes we now retreat,
 That we may here converse with thee;
 Oh! Lord, behold us at thy feet,
 Let this the gate of heaven be.
- 3 Oh let thy glory now appear,
 That we by faith may see thy face;
 And speak, that we thy voice may hear,
 And let thy presence fill this place.

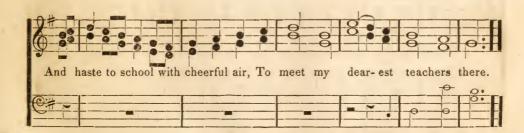

- 2 Oh, be his service all my joy, Around let my example shine; Till others love the blest employ, And join in labors so divine.
- 3 Oh, may I never faint nor tire;
 Nor wand'ring leave his sacred ways;
 Great God, accept my soul's desire,
 And give me strength to live thy praise.

- 2 The want of sight it well supplies; Faith makes the pearly gates appear; Far into distant worlds it pries; And brings eternal glories near.
- 3 Cheerful we tread the desert through,
 While faith inspires a heavenly ray,
 Though lions roar, and tempests blow,
 And rocks and dangers fill the way.

- 2 From all the lessons I obtain, May I a store of knowledge gain; And early seek my Saviour's face; And gain from him supplies of grace.
- 3 And, then, through life's remaining days, I'll love to sing my Saviour's praise; And bless the kindness and the grace, That brought me to this sacred place.

- 2 Here then, a thousand lips would pray, A thousand voices praise, Great Saviour, bless this happy day, And hear the songs we raise.
- lips would pray,
 e,
 That saw our low estate,
 s happy day,
 raise.
 And kindly sent, and brought us nigh,
 To seek thy temple gate.
 - 4 For every kind forgiving word
 That in thy gospel shines,
 And more than all, that we have heard
 And learn those heavenly lines.

- When shall the young of every land The Hallelujah sing, And far on every foreign strand, Confess Him as their King;
- 3 Let us begin the noble tune On freedom's happy ground, And distant nations join it soon, In one eternal sound.

A Child's Prayer. C. M.

- 2 O make me holy as thou wert, When thou on earth didst live; Oh take away my wicked heart, A better nature give.
- 3 I would be like thee if I could, But thou must teach me how; Oh blessed Saviour make me good, In mercy hear me now.

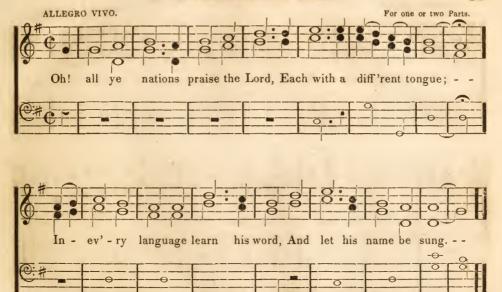

- 2 Hast thou not said, let children come! 'Tis here thy people meet; And we have learnt there still is room, We bow beneath thy feet.
- 3 To thee we give this sacred hour, In thee our souls confide; Beneath the shadow of thy power, Our feet shall never slide.

- When I behold thy works on high, The moon that rules the night, And stars that well adorn the sky, Those moving worlds of light,
- 3 Lord what is man or all his race,
 That dwells so far below;
 That thou should'st visit him with grace,
 And love his nature so.
- 4 Jesus, our Lord, how wond'rous great
 Is thine exalted name!
 The glories of thy heav'nly state
 Let the whole earth proclaim.

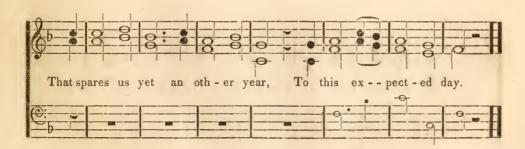

2 His mercy reigns through every land, Proclaim his grace abroad; Forever firm his truth shall stand, Praise ye the faithful God.

- 2 For ever! O transporting thought! For ever mercy reigns! Inviolate thy promise, Lord! Not heav'n more sure remains!
- 3 Fulfill'd, celestial armies sing, The wonders of thy love! Fulfill'd on earth, the church, redeem'd From sin and death shall prove.
- 4 What power beyond this earthly orb With Godhead may compare?
 Nor saint in light, nor seraph bright,
 The name divine shall bear.

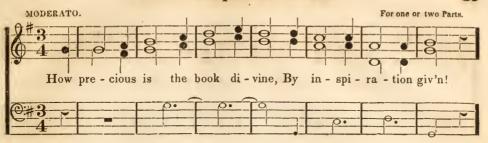

- 2 Thanks that we know the joyful sound Of life, through Jesus' name;
 And were not born on heathen ground,
 To which it never came.
- 3 But poor and mean our thanks must be, For favours so divine! Great God, we owe ourselves to Thee, Make us entirely thine.

God's Omnipotence. C. M.

- 2 More of thy grace may teachers know, 3 May children and their teacher's rise Thy spirits aid impart; Much patience, love, and zeal bestow, To stimulate each heart.
- In heaven's triumphant throng; And join to sing their Saviour's praise, In one eternal song.

- 2 It sweetly cheers our drooping hearts, In this dark vale of tears; Life, light, and joy, it still imparts, And quells our rising fears.
- 3 This lamp, through all the tedious night Of life, shall guide our way;
 Till we behold the clearer light
 Of an eternal day.

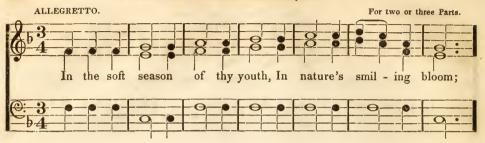

- 2 Joy to the earth, the Saviour reigns,
 Let children songs employ!
 While fields and floods, rocks, hills & plains,
 Repeat the sounding joy.
- 3 He rules the world with truth and grace, And makes the nations prove The glories of his righteousness, And wonders of his love.

- When Jesus left his throne above To dwell with sinful worms, Then shone almighty power and love, In all their glorious forms.
- 3 Adoring Angels tun'd their songs
 To hail the joyful day;
 With rapture then let mortal tongues
 Their grateful worship pay.

Remember thy Creator, &c. C. M.

- Remember thy Creator God,
 For him thy hours employ;
 Make him thy fear, thy love, thy hope,
 Thy confidence, thy joy.
- 3 He shall defend and guide thy course
 Thro' life's uncertain sea;
 Till thou art landed on the shore
 Of bless'd eternity.

- 2 In early life to us, O Lord, Thy pard'ning mercy show; And while our minds are early taught, May we in knowledge grow.
- 3 Should we to riper years attain,
 O! be thou still our friend;
 To guide us in the heavenly road,
 Till life with us shall end.

Providence. C. M.

- 2 The early dawn of op'ning life
 Has prov'd thy guardian care;
 And may I through my future years,
 Thy grace and goodness share
- 3 Now may I give myself to thee,
 And in thy name confide;
 Most gracious God, O deign to be
 My Father, Friend, and Guide

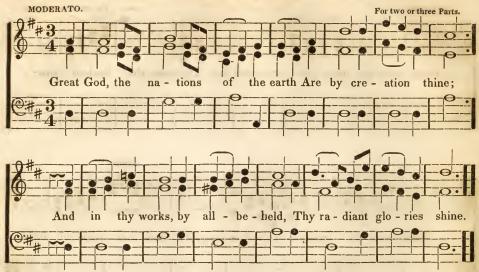

- O may God, who gave our lives,
 And thus far led us on;

 Be pleas'd to train our infant minds
 To know and love his Son.
- 3 Teach us thy way while here we learn
 To read thy heav'nly word;
 Bless all the kind instructions giv'n,
 And make us thine, O Lord.

Missionary Prayer. C. M.

- 2 But, Lord, thy greater love has sent Thy gospel to mankind, Unveiling what rich stores of grace Are treasured in thy mind.
- 3 Lord, when shall the glad tidings spread
 The spacious earth around,
 Till every tribe and every soul
 Shall hear the joyful sound?
- 4 Smile, Lord, on each divine attempt
 To spread the gospel rays;
 And build on sin's demolish'd throne
 The temples of thy praise.

- 2 The early dawn of opening life Has proved thy guardian care; And may I, through all future years, Thy grace and goodness share.
- 3 Now may I give myself to thee, And in thy name confide; Most gracious God! O deign to be My Father, Friend, and Guide

Invitation. C. M.

- 2 Depart from mischief, practise love, Pursue the works of peace; So shall the Lord your ways approve, And set your souls at ease!
- 3 His eyes awake to guard the just,
 His ears attend their cry;
 When broken spirits dwell in dust,
 The God of grace is nigh.
- 4 When desolation like a flood
 O'er the proud sinner rolls,
 Saints find a refuge in their God,
 For he redeems their souls.

- We come to own the pow'r divine, That watches o'er our days, For this our cheerful voices join, In hymns of grateful praise.
- 3 May we in safety pass this day,
 From sin and danger free;
 And ever walk in that sure way,
 Which leads to heaven and thee!
- 4 Where'er the rising sun displays,
 His cheerful beams abroad;
 Then shall our morning hymns of praise,
 Declare thy goodness, Lord

- When once it enters to the mind, It spreads such light abroad, The meanest souls instruction find, And raise their thoughts to God.
- 3 'Tis like the sun a heav'nly light, That guides us all the day; And, through the dangers of the night A lamp to lead our way.
- 4 Thy word is everlasting truth,
 How pure is ev'ry page!
 That holy book shall guide our youth,
 And well support our age.

- 2 It sweetly cheers our drooping hearts, In this dark vale of tears; Life, light, and joy, it still imparts, And quells our rising fears.
- 3 This lamp through all the tedious night Of life, shall guide our way, Till we behold the clearer light Of an eternal day.

- 2 Fit emblem of our mortal state,
 That in the scripture glass;
 The young, the strong, the wise, the great,
 May see themselves but grass.
- 3 Ah! trust not to your fleeting breath,
 Nor call your time your own;
 Around you see! the scythe of death
 Is mowing thousands down.

- 2 How shall a christian pilgrim dare This dangerous path to tread? For on the way is many a snare For youthful trav'llers spread.
- 3 But lest my feeble steps should slide, Or wander from thy way, Lord, condescend to be my guide, And I shall never stray.
- 4 Thus I may safely venture through,
 Beneath my Shepherd's care;
 And keep the gate of heav'n in view
 Till I shall enter there.

Life's Journey. C. M.

- What sorrows may my steps attend, I never can foretell; But if the Lord will be my friend, I know that all is well.
- 3 If all my earthly friends should die,
 And leave me mourning here;
 Since God can hear the orphan's cry,
 O what have I to fear?

4 But, Lord, whatever grief or ill
For me may be in store;
Make me submissive to thy will,
And I would ask no more

His name shall be the Prince of Peace,
 Forevermore adored,
 The Wonderful, the Counsellor,

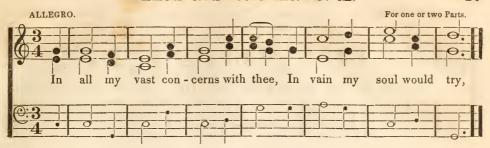

The great and mighty Lord.

- 3 His power, increasing still shall spread;
 His reign no end shall know;
 Justice shall guard his throne above,
 And peace abound below.
- 4 To us a Child of hope is born,
 To us a Son is given:
 The Wonderful, the Counsellor,
 The mighty Lord of heaven.

- 2 Since I'm a stranger here below,
 Let not thy path be hid;
 But mark the road my feet should go,
 And be my constant guide.
- 3 When I confess'd my wandering ways, Thou heard'st my soul complain; Grant me the teachings of thy grace, Or I shall stray again.
- 4 If God to me his statutes show,
 And heavenly truth impart,
 His work forever I'll pursue,
 His law shall rule my heart.

- 2 O wondrous knowledge, deep and high! Where can a creature hide? Within thy circling arms I lie, Beset on every side.
- 3 So let thy grace surround me still,
 And like a bulwark prove,
 To guard my soul from every ill,
 Secured by sovereign love.

A Hymn of Praise. C. M.

- 2 To-day he rose and left the dead, And Satan's empire fell; To-day the saints his triumphs spread, And all his wonders tell.
- 3 Hosanna to th' anointed King, To David's holy son; Help us, O Lord, descend and bring Salvation from thy throne.

- O change these stubborn hearts of ours, And make us pure within;
 Still manifest thy mighty power, And save us from our sin.
- 3 Then will we make redeeming love, Our daily, nightly song; And joy, like theirs who sing above, Shall tune our thankful tongue.

- 2 The sun with golden beams, And moon with paler rays; Ye starry lights, ye twinkling flames, Shine to your Maker's praise.
- 3 He built those worlds above, And fix'd their wond'rous frame; By his command they stand or move, And ever speak his name.

2 Then let us think on death,
Though we are young and gay;
For God, who gave us life and breath,
Can take them both away.

Teacher's Meeting. S. M.

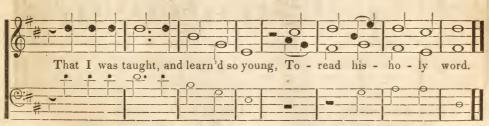

Oh what a vast delight,
 Their happiness to see!

 Our warmest wishes all unite
 To lead their souls to thee.

Unison.

Unison.

- O let thy word of grace
 My warmest thoughts employ;
 Be this, through all my future days,
 My treasure and my joy.
- 3 Then shall I praise the Lord
 In a more cheerful strain;
 That I was taught to read his word,
 And have not learn'd in vain.

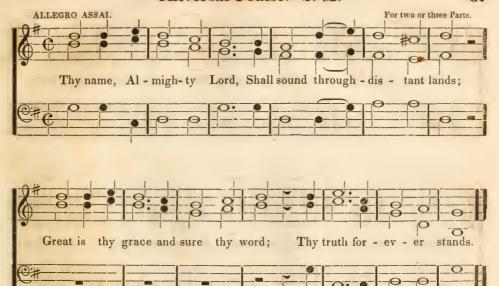

- 2 Ours is the Sunday school, Its lessons may we prize; And grow by every gospel rule Unto salvation wise.
- 3 So all our lives below
 In wisdom's pleasant ways,
 The fruits of Sunday schools shall show
 The bliss of Sabbath-days.
- 4 Then heaven itself shall be Our Sunday school above, And undisturbed eternity One Sabbath-day of love.

- 2 Let me remember well
 That God is present here;
 And let my heart be all engag'd
 When I draw near in pray'r.
- 3 And when my praises shall
 My tuneful lips employ,
 Give me to taste that sweet delight
 Which saints in heav'n enjoy.

- 2 How straight the path appears
 How open and how fair!
 No lurking gins t'entrap our feet,
 No fierce destroyer there.
- 3 But flowers of Paradise
 In rich profusion spring;
 The sun of glory gilds the path,
 And dear companions sing.
- 4 All honor to his name,
 Who marks the shining way
 'To him who leads the wand'rers on,
 To realms of endless day.

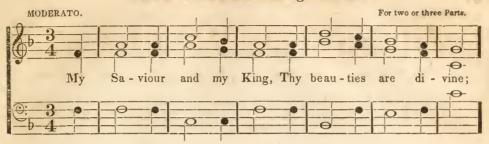

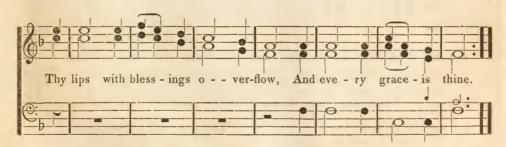

2 Far be thine honor spread, And long thy praise endure, Till morning light, and evening shade Shall be exchanged no more.

- Before our Father's throne
 We pour our ardent prayers;
 Our fears, our hopes, our aims are one,
 Our comforts and our cares.
- 3 From sorrow, toil, and pain,
 And sin, we shall be free;
 And perfect love and friendship reign,
 Through all eternity.

- 2 Strike through thy stubborn foes, Or melt their hearts t' obey; While justice, meekness, grace and truth, Attend thy glorious way.
- 3 Thy laws, O God! are right;
 Thy throne shall ever stand;
 And thy victorious gospel prove
 A sceptre in thy hand.

- 2 I may, for aught I know,
 This hour the summons hear,
 That calls me where the wicked go,
 Or where the saints appear.
- 3 Teach me, with all my heart,
 Thy mercy to embrace,
 And now from ev'ry sin depart,
 To seize the time of grace.
- 4 My soul from ruin save,
 And cleanse my ev'ry stain;
 Then shall I triumph o'er the grave,
 And paradise regain.

- 2 Nature in every dress Her humble homage pays; And finds a thousand ways t' express Thine undissembled praise.
- 3 My soul would rise and sing
 To her Creator too;
 Fain would my tongue adore my King,
 And pay the worship due.
- 4 Let joy and worship spend
 The remnant of my days;
 And to my God, my soul ascend
 In sweet perfumes of praise.

2 Sing on your heavenly way, Ye ransom'd sinners, sing; Sing on, rejoicing every day, In Christ th' eternal King.

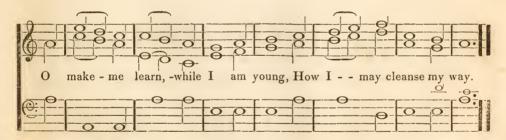

Sabbath Day. S. M.

- 2 Kneeling I worship Thee,
 Dread o'er my spirit steals
 From whispering sounds of those who kneel,
 Unseen, to pray with me
- 3 All round and far away
 Clear is the solemn sky,
 It seems all opening to my eye;
 This is the Sabbath day.

- 2 Make me, a helpless youth,
 The object of thy care;
 Help me to choose the way of truth,
 And flee from every snare.
- O let thy word of grace,
 My warmest thoughts employ;
 Be this through all my following days,
 My treasure and my joy.

Sabbath Morning. S. M.

- 2 'Tis his Almighty love, His counsel and his care, Preserves us safe from sin and death, And every hurtful snare.
- 3 To our Redeemer God,
 Wisdom and power belong,
 Immortal crowns of majesty,
 Of praise, and endless song.

- See the leaves are falling fast,
 Scattered by the wintry blast;
 So our youthful pleasures fade,
 Cares will soon our breasts invade.
- 3 Time is passing swift away;
 Earthly joys will soon decay;
 May we have, prepared on high,
 Pleasures that will never die.

Mozart's Hymn. 7's.

2 All who vital breath enjoy, In his praise that breath employ; Heaven and earth the chorus join; Praise—oh praise the name divine.

- 2 Fear not, children, joyful stand, On the borders of our land; Jesus Christ, our Father's son, Bids us undismay'd go on!
- 3 Lord! obedient we will go,
 Gladly leaving all below:
 Only thou our leader be,
 And we still will follow thee!

2 Dangers thick beset them round Where for succor shall they flee? May their help be ever found, Blessed Saviour, all in thee!

Where his holy altars rise, Let his saints adore his name; There present their sacrifice, There with joy his works proclaim.

2 Thus may we abide in union, With each other in the Lord; And possess in sweet communion, Joys which earth cannot afford.

For two Parts

- 2 Haste—and mercy now implore; Stay not for the morrow's sun; Lest thy season should be o'er, Ere this evening's stage be run.
- 3 Haste---O sinner -- now return; Stay not for the morrow's sun; Lest thy lamp should cease to burn, Ere salvation's work is done.

4 Haste, O sinner--now be blest; Stay not for the morrow's sun; Lest perdition thee arrest, Ere the morrow is begun

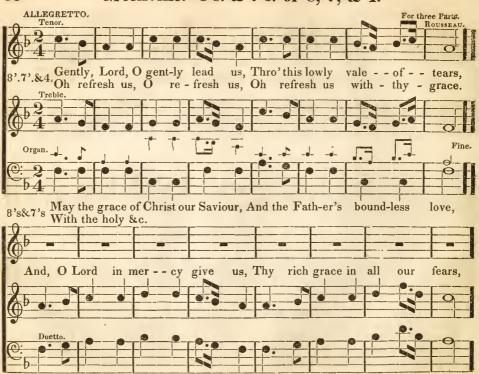

- 2 Though thou art so great and high,
 Thou dost view with smiling face,
 Little children when they cry,
 Saviour, guide us by thy grace.'
- 3 Show me what I ought to be,
 Make me every evil shun;
 Thee, in all things may I see
 In thy holy footsteps run.

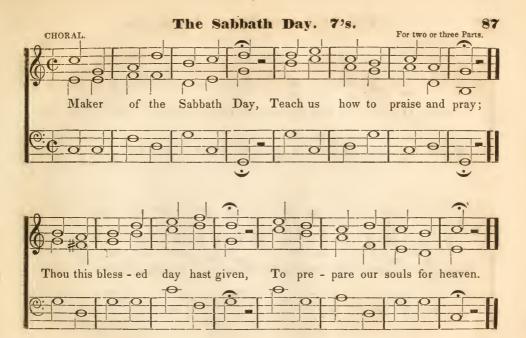

For one two or three Parts.

- 2 Heaven and earth by him were made, All is by his sceptre sway'd; What are we, that he should show So much love to us below! Sing, my soul, his wondrous love.
- 3 Sing my soul, adore his name,
 Let his glory be thy theme;
 Praise him till he calls thee home,
 Trust his love for all to come,
 Praise, O praise the God of love.

With the ho -- ly Spir - it's fa -- - vor, Rest up -on us from a -- - bove!

- 2 Giver of eternal rest,
 Be thy glorious Gospel blest;
 Thou alone canst change the heart,
 Thou alone canst peace impart.
- 3 Friend of children, hear our prayer,
 Let no trifling feelings dare
 Steal the precious hours away,
 Of this sacred Sabbath-Day.

2 While your silent steps are straying
Lonely through night's deepning shade,
Glory's brightest beams are playing
Round the happy christian's head.

3 Cease, then, mourner, cease to languish,
e, O'er the grave of those you love:
Pain and death and night and anguish
Enter not the world above.

- 2 We are debtors to thy kindness, God of grace, and boundless love; Thousands wander on in blindness, Strangers to the light above.
- 3 Jesus, on thine arm relying,
 We would tread this earthly vale;
 Be our life, when we are dying,
 Be our strength, when strength shall fail.

2 Gracious Jesus, mighty Saviour!
Hear our lispings to thy praise;
Thou didst bless such little children,
And invite them near thy face:
Son of David,
Loud hosannahs to thy name.

Doxology. L. M.

Prayer. Continued.

- 2 For our sin and guilt lamenting,
 Let us bow before thy face:
 O! behold the souls repenting,
 Look, and give thy saving grace:
 O receive us,
 Freely, for the Saviour's sake.
- 3 Then with joyful adoration,
 We will lift our heart and voice;
 While beholding thy salvation,
 Saints and angels will rejoice;
 Hear us, Father,
 In the great Redeemer's name.

2 'Tis Jesus the first and the last, Whose spirit shall guide us safe home; We'll praise him for all that is past, And trust him for all that's to come.

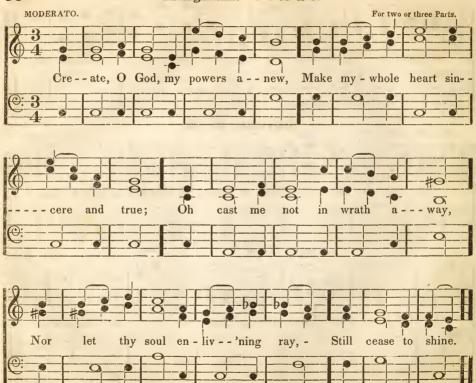

Lambeth. Eights.

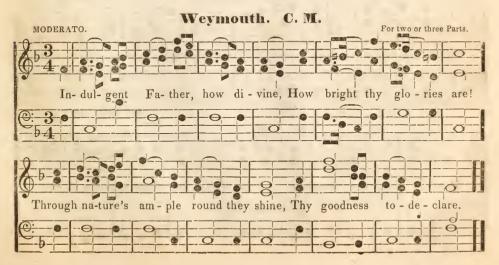

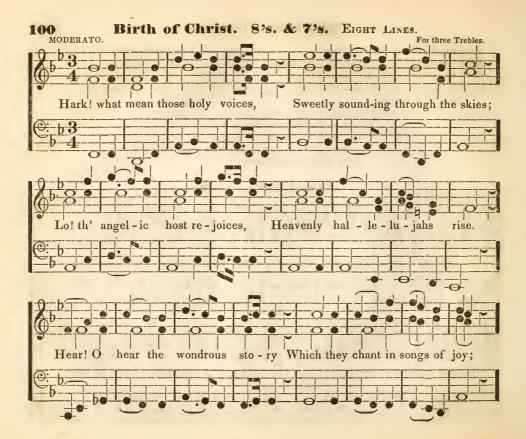

Hingham. 8's & 4's.

- 2 Restore thy favor bliss divine! 3
 Those heavenly joys that once were mine;
 Let thy good Spirit, kind and free,
 Uphold and guide my steps to Thee,
 Thou God of love.
 - 3 Then will I teach thy sacred ways;
 With holy zeal proclaim thy praise;
 Till sinners leave the dang'rous road,
 Forsake their sins, and turn to God
 With hearts sincere.
 - 4 Oh cleanse my guilt, and heal my pain; Remove the blood-polluted stain; Then shall my heart adoring trace, My Saviour God, the boundless grace, That flows from Thee,

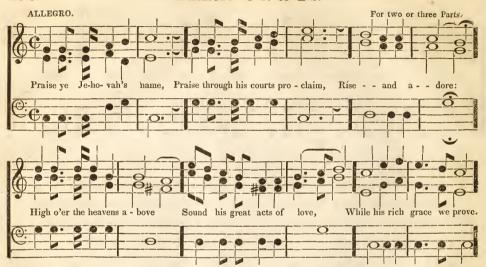

- 2 Peace on earth, good will from heaven, Reaching far as man is found; Souls redeem'd, and sins forgiven, Loud our golden harps shall sound. Christ is born, God's own anointed, Heaven and earth his praises sing; O, receive whom God appointed For your Prophet, Priest, and King
- 3 Hasten mortals to adore him;
 Learn his name, and taste his joy;
 Till in heaven, ye sing before him,
 Glory be to God on high!
 Let us learn the wondrous story
 Of our great Redeemer's birth;
 Spread the brightness of his glory
 Till it cover all the earth.

Luther. 6's. & 4's.

Wide as his fame: There let the harps be found; Organs with solemn sound, Roll your deep notes around, Filled with his name.

Sounds of triumphant praise,

3 While his high praise ye sing, Shake every sounding string Sweet the accord! He vital breath bestows; Let every breath that flows His noblest fame disclose-Praise ye the Lord.

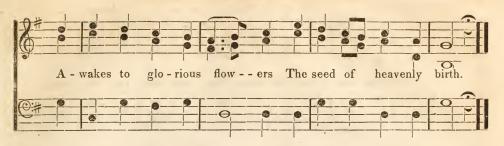

The second part may be repeated.

2 The fulness of thy favor Pour down on them we pray, Who, to thy fold, O Saviour, Restore us when we pray: Their works rewarded double, O let them prove thy love; Their sun and shield in trouble, Their crown of life above.

3 Still be thy gospel spreading
Abroad its glorious light,
Wherever man is treading
The paths of death and night.
From nation on to nation,
Extend its righteous sway,
Until the desolation
Of sin be swept away,

Hope of Heaven. 7's & 6's.

- 2 Rivers to the ocean run, Nor stay in all their course;
 Fire, ascending, seeks the sun, Both speed them to their source:
 So the soul that's born of God, Pants to view his glorious face:
 Upward tends to his abode
 To rest in his embrace.
- 3 Cease, ye pilgrims, cease to mourn;
 Press onward to the prize;
 Soon our Saviour will return,
 Triumphant to the skies.
 Yet a season, and, you know,
 Happy entrance will be given:
 All our sorrows left below,
 And earth exchang'd for heaven.

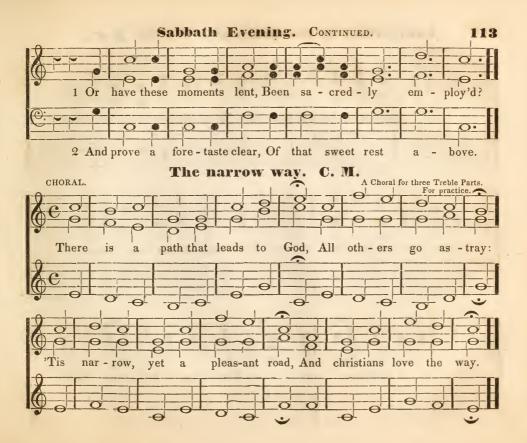

2 Time is winging us away,
 To our eternal home;
 Life is but a winter's day—
 A journey to the tomb:
 But the christian shall enjoy
 Health and beauty, soon above,
 Far beyond the world's alloy,
 Secure in Jesus' love.

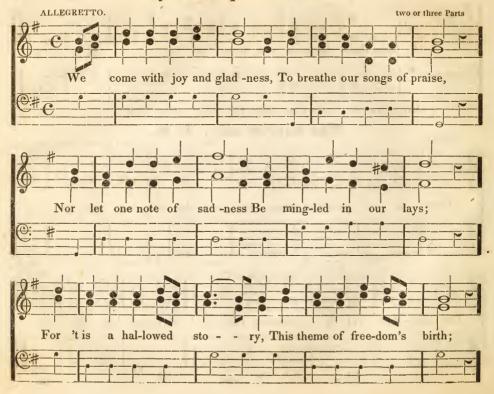

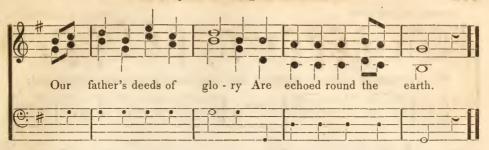

2 But may our Sabbaths here,

In - spire our hearts with love;

114 Anniversary of Independence. 7's. 8's. & 6's.

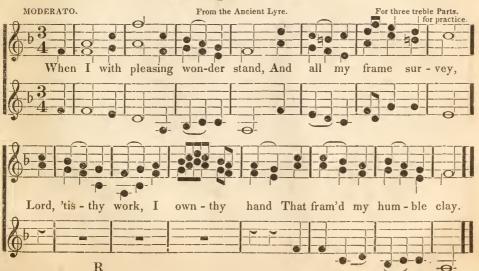

- 2 The sound is waxing stronger,
 And thrones and nations hear—
 Proud man shall rule no longer,
 For God the Lord is near.
 And he will crush oppression
 And raise the humble mind,
 And give the earth's possession
 Among the good and kind.
- 3 And then shall sink the mountains,
 Where pride and power are crowned,
 And peace like gentle fountains,
 Shall shed its pureness round.
 O God we would adore thee,
 And in thy shadow rest;
 Our fathers bowed before thee,
 And trusted, and were blest.

2 In heaven, no winter they know,
 To wither the pleasures away;
 The plants that so sweetly do grow,
 Shall blossom and never decay.
For earth's fading charms then no longer we'll care.
But hope we may spend an eternity there.

Liverpool. C. M.

- 2 Oh how fleeting, how deceiving, Are our days departing! Like a deep and headlong river, Flowing onward, flowing ever! Tarrying not, and stopping never.
- 3 Oh how fleeting, how deceiving,
 Are the world's enjoyments!
 All the hues of change they borrow,
 Bright to day and dark tomorrow,
 Mingled lot of joy and sorrow.
- 4 Oh how fleeting, how deceiving,
 Is all earthly beauty!
 Like a summer flow'ret flowing,
 Scattered by the breezes, blowing
 O'er the bed on which t'was growing.
- 5 Oh how fleeting, how deceiving,
 All—yes! all that's earthly!
 Every thing is fading—flying—
 Man is mortal—earth is dying—
 Christian! live, on heaven relying.

- 2 Cold on his cradle the dew-drops are shining, Low lies his head with the beasts of the stall, Angels adore him in slumber reclining, Maker, and Monarch, and Saviour of all.
- 3 Say, shall we yield him, in costly devotion,
 Odors of Edom, and off'rings divine?
 Gems of the mountain, and pearls of the ocean,
 Myrrh from the forest, or gold from the mine?
- 4 Vainly we offer each ample oblation;
 Vainly with gifts would his favors secure!
 Richer by far is the heart's adoration;
 Dearer to God are the prayers of the poor —BISHOP HEBER

The Garden of Kedron. 11's.

- 2 O Garden of Olive, thou dear honor'd spot, The fame of thy wonders shall ne'er be forgot; The theme most transporting to seraphs above, The triumph of sorrow, the triumph of love.
- Come, saints and adore him, come bow at his feet;
 O give him the glory, the praise that is meet;
 Let joyful hosannas unceasing arise,
 And join the full chorus that gladdens the skies.

- 2 Our Father, our Father, we ask thee to guide us, And keep us from sin till life's journey be o'er; Then the last sigh of nature, whate'er else betide us, Shall waft us to glory, when time is no more.
 - 3 Then, then will we sing the sweet song of the blessed, And mingle our strains with the myriads above; Far surpassing all strains that our tongues e'er expressed, And Jesus, the chorus, and Infinite Love.

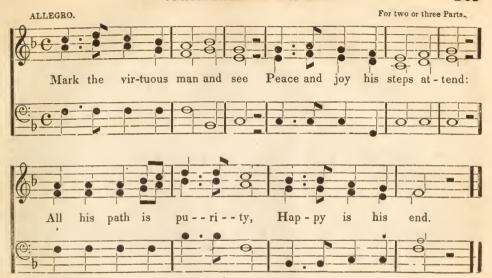

Heaven. S. M.

3 Now, Lord before we part, Help us to bless thy name: Let every tongue and heart, Praise and adore the same. 2 Lord, in thy grace we came,That blessing still impart;We meet in Jesus' name,In Jesus' name we part.

2 Come and see his dying bed: Calm his latest moments roll: Angels hover round his head: Heaven receives his soul.

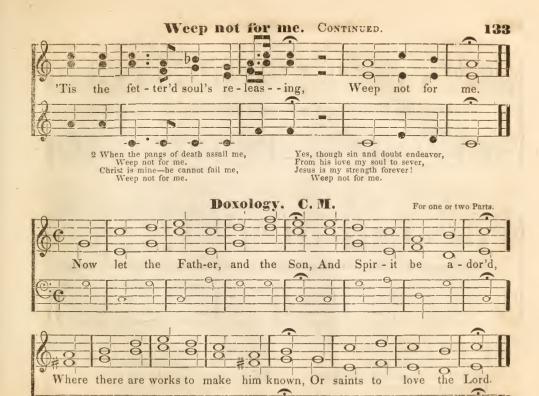

- 2 My voice would be lisping thy praise, My heart would repay thee with love;
 - O! teach me to walk in thy ways, And fit me to see thee above :-
 - For Jesus has bid little children come nigh, He will not despise such an infant as I.
- 3 As long as thou deemest it right, That here on this earth I should stay,
- I pray thee to guard me by night,
 And help me to serve thee by day;
 And when all the days of my life shall have past, Receive me in heaven to praise thee at last.

Christian Friendship. L. M.

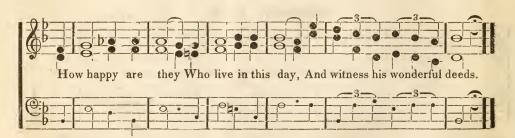

Onslow. 5's & 8's.

- 2 His word he sends forth,
 From south to the north:
 From east and from west it is heard:
 The rebel is charmed:
 The foe is disarmed:
 No day like this day has appeared.
- 3 To Jesus alone,
 Who sits on the throne,
 Salvation and glory belong:
 All hail the blessed name,
 Forever the same,
 Our joy, and the theme of our song.

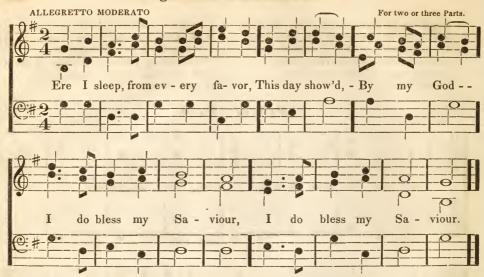

Providence. 8's. & 4's.

- 2 Fight on, ye conquering souls, fight on, 3
 And when the conquest you have won,
 Then psalms of victory you shall bear,
 And in his kingdom have a share,
 And crowns of glory ever wear,
 In endless day.
- 3 There we shall in full chorus join,
 With saints and angels all combine,
 To sing of his redeeming-love,
 When rolling years shall cease to move,
 And this shall be our theme above,
 In endless day.

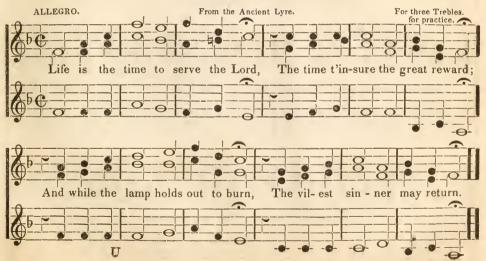

- Leave me not, but ever love me;
 Let thy peace
 Be my bliss,
 Till thou hence remove me.
- 3 Thou, my rock, my guard, my tower,
 Safely keep,
 While I sleep,
 Me, with all thy power.
- 4 And, whene'er in death I slumber,
 Let me rise
 With the wise,
 Counted in their number.

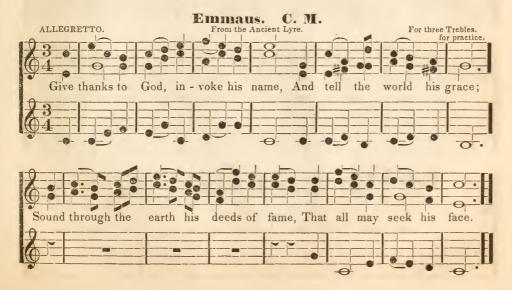

- 2 Behold the way! ye heralds, cry:
 Spare not—but lift your voices high:
 Convey the sound from pole to pole,
 Glad tidings to the captive soul.
- 3 Auspicious dawn!—thy rising ray,
 With joy we view, and hail the day:
 Great Sun of Righteousness, arise,
 And fill the world with glad surprise.

- 2 Proclaim aloud, Jehovah reigns, Whose pow'r the universe sustains, And banish'd justice will restore: Let therefore heav'n new joys confess: And heav'nly mirth let earth express; Its loud applause the ocean roar; Its mute inhabitants rejoice, And for this triumph find a voice.
- 3 For joy let fertile vallies sing,
 The cheerful groves their tribute bring,
 The tuneful choir of birds awake,
 The Lord's approach to celebrate;
 Who now sets out with awful state,
 His circuit through the earth to take:
 From heav'n to judge the world has come,
 With justice to reward and doom.

- 2 I'd sing the characters he bears, And all the forms of love he wears, Exalted on his throne: In loftiest songs of sweetest praise, I would to everlasting days Make all his glories known.
- Well---this delightful day will come, When my dear Lord wll bring me home, And I shall see his face: Then, with my Saviour, brother, friend, A blest eternity I'll spend, Triumphant in his grace.

Chilton. C. P. M.

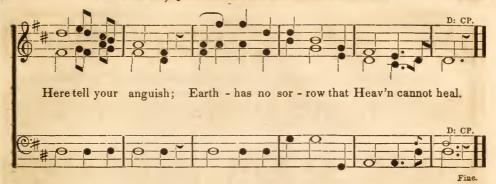

- 2 Stretch o'er our heads thy guardian wings, Secure the weak, O King of Kings! Our shield and refuge be: Thy Spirit, Lord, conduct our youth, Through Christ the life, the way, the truth, That we may come to thee.
- 3 While friends their gen'rous aid afford,
 Accept the kind intention, Lord,
 And crown it with thy love;
 Then joy shall tune our humble songs,
 Till we shall join immortal tongues,
 In nobler praise above.

Come, ye Disconsolate.

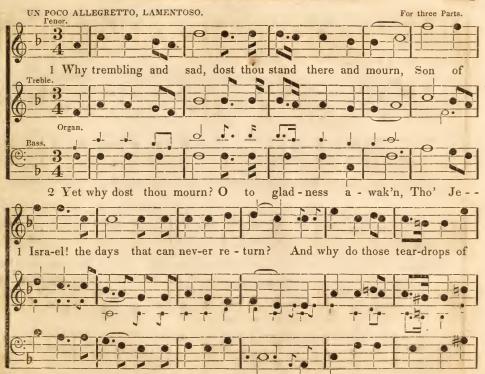

SOLO. 2 Joy of the comfortless, Light of the straying, Hope when all others die, Earth has no sorrow Fadeless and pure,

SOLO. 3 Here speaks the comforter In God's name saying: That Heav'n cannot cure.

CHORUS. Here speaks the comforter In God's name saying: Earth has no sorrow That Heav'n cannot cure.

'For he was a Good Man.'

2 God of the rolling orbs above!
Thy name is written clearly bright
In the warm day's unvarying blaze
Or evening's golden shower of light.
For every fire that fronts the sun,
And every spark that walks alone
Around the utmost verge of heaven,
Were kindled at thy throne!

3 God of the world! the hour must come,
And nature's self to dust return;
Her crumbling altars must decay;
Her incense fires shall cease to burn;
But still her grand and lovely scenes
Have made man's warmest praises flow;
For hearts grow holier as they trace
The beauty of the world below.

Child's Funeral.

- 2 Yes, thou art going home,
 Our Father's face to see,
 In perfect bliss and glory;
 But we, O, where are we?
 While that celestial country
 Thick clouds and darkness hide,
 In a strange land of exile,
 Still, still must we abide.
- 3 O father of our spirits,
 We can but look to thee;
 Though chastened, not forsaken,
 Shall we thy children be,
 We take the cup of sorrow,
 As did thy blessed Son—
 Teach us to say, with Jesus,
 'Thy will, not ours, be done!'

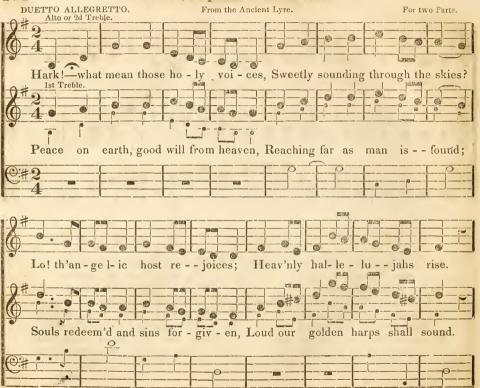

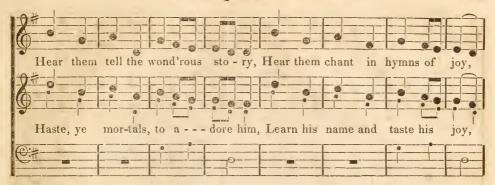

- 2 As the winged arrow flies
 Speedily the mark to find;
 As the light'ning from the skies
 Darts, and leaves no trace behind.
 Swiftly thus our fleeting days
 Bear us down life's rapid stream;
 Upwards, Lord, our spirits raise,
 All below is but a dream.
- 3 Thanks, for mercies past, receive,
 Pardon of our sins renew;
 Teach us henceforth how to live,
 With eternity in view;
 Bless thy word to young and old,
 Fill us with a Saviour's love;
 And when life's short tale is told,
 May we dwell with thee above.

Watchman! tell us of the night.

MISSIONARY OR CHRISTMAS HYMN.

3 Watchman! &c.

For the morning seems to dawn.

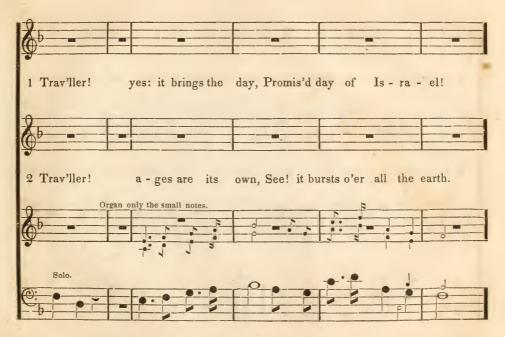

3 Trav'ller! dark-ness takes its flight, Doubt and ter - ror are withdrawn!

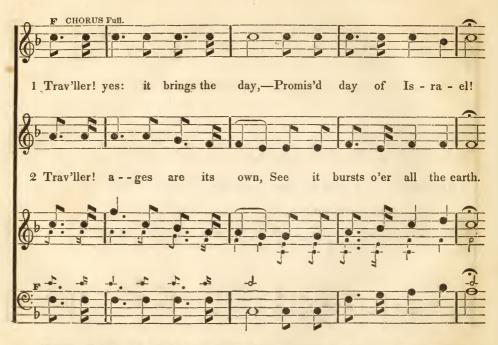

184 Watchman! tell us of the night. Continued.

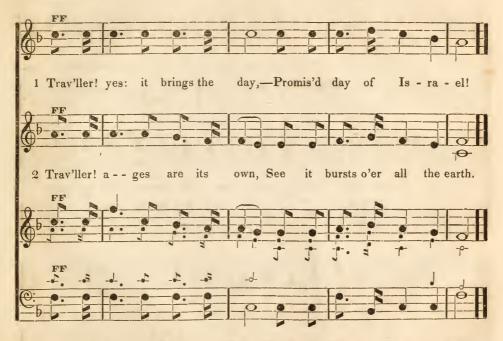

3 Watchman! watchman! let thy wand'rings cease; Hie thee to thy quiet home?

3 Trav'ller! lo! the Prince of Peace, Lo! the Son of God is come!

3 Trav'ller! Lo! the Prince of Peace, Lo! the Son of God is come!

3 Trav'ller! Lo! the Prince of Peace, Lo! the Son of God is come!
